

clear | compelling | approachable

Lynsey Knott

Year of Call 2006

Lynsey is hard working, professional and approachable with a vast experience of cases involving vulnerable witnesses and clients. She prides herself on her considerate approach to witnesses and her commitment to providing excellent client care.

Practice Areas

Crime

Summary

Lynsey is often a sought after advocate for domestic violence cases and has been a led junior in multi defendant cases involving serious violence and immigration offences. She regularly advises at pre-charge stage and has appeared at the Court of Appeal.

Lynsey studied law at the University of Leicester and the Bar Vocational Course at Nottingham Trent Law School.

Lynsey is also a member of The Midland Circuit.

Notable Cases

R-v- Lawrence

Armed robbery of a newsagent's

R-v- Daahir et al

Armed kidnapping arising out of a feud between rival drug dealing gangs

R-v- Mahter et al

Sham marriage case

clear | compelling | approachable

R-v- Ashcroft

Section 18 against security staff at a local supermarket.

R-v- Devine

Cruelty to a 4 year old child