Summary

Jonathan has a mixed Prosecution/Defence practice, covering the whole range of criminal work. Between 2002 – 2005 he was appointed to the Attorney General's List of Prosecuting Counsel (List A) which expanded his practice to work of a more regulatory nature.

Jonathan has wide experience of Health & Safety law and practice, POCA, Money Laundering and complex Fraud. He has acted as independent Counsel for HMRC and has undertaken numerous cases involving fatal and non-fatal incidents for the HSE.

On the Defence side, his practice takes him all over the country, and he has wide experience in cases involving sexual offences against children and adults, serious drugs matters, frauds and fatal and non-fatal offences against the person.

Additional Info

Jonathan is trained in the forensic examination of computer systems and is often called upon to deal with cases of computer misuse and copyright infringement.
